GENERAL RESIDENCY APPLICATION TIMELINE 2013-2014

MAY-JUNE

- Meet with your advising Dean to review specialty choice and plans for your process, and your Medical Student Performance Evaluation (MSPE)
- Seek out advising mentors within your specialty: more info available through Office of Professional Development & Career Guidance
- Use AMA's FREIDA to explore programs and information
- Assess qualifications and competitiveness for different specialties
  - Review “Charting Outcomes in the Match” http://www.aamc.org/programs/cim/chartingoutcomes.pdf or
  - Review Career Pages on Careers in Medicine website
    www.aamc.org/careersinmedicine Urology applicants should register for the urology match at http://www.auanet.org/content/residency/residency-match.cfm#schedule
- Work on your Curriculum Vitae

JUNE

- Finalize your CV
- Ophthalmology and applicants register with San Francisco Match at www.sfmatch.org

JULY

- Obtain your ERAS token (a special code) from the Student Affairs Office
- JULY 1: ERAS opens http://www.aamc.org/students/eras/start.htm
- Start drafting your personal statement and review it
- Begin to solicit Letters of Recommendation

AUGUST

- 9.15.13: Registration opens for NRMP http://www.nrmp.org/ for Main Residency Match
- Early August: aim to complete application for ophthalmology and urology
- Finalize personal statement
- Review all of your Clerkship Evaluations
- Sign-up for MOCK INTERVIEWS
SEPTEMBER

- September 15: via MyERAS site, students can begin transmitting applications
- Identify any additional faculty writing letters of recommendation

OCTOBER

- October 1: MSPE’s are released nationally
- SF Match applicants start to schedule program interviews, usually for Nov/Dec
- Begin scheduling residency interviews, typically for Nov/Dec/Early Jan

NOVEMBER

- 11.30.13: DEADLINE for early registration to NRMP; after 11.30 pay additional $50 late fee

DECEMBER

- Military Match results announced

JANUARY

- SF Match and Urology applicants finalize rank order lists
- 1.7.14: Deadline for SF Match Rank List submission;
- Mid-late January: Ophthalmology and urology match results announced
- 1.15.14: Rank Order List (ROL) entry begins

FEBRUARY

- Work on NRMP rank order lists with advising Deans
- 2.26.14: ROL Certification DEADLINE

MARCH

- 3.17.13: Applicant matched and unmatched data posted to web at NOON
- 3.18.13: Filled and unfilled results for programs posted
- 3.21.13: MATCH DAY; results formally announced and posted to web at 1PM EST